

States v. Raddatz, 447 U.S. 667 (1980). The court is not addressing any nonspecific objections or any frivolous or conclusory objections. Battle v. United States Parole Comm'n, 834 F.2d 419, 421 (5th Cir. 1987).

Petitioner's only alleged objections reiterate his substantive attacks on his sentence. For example, he complains that the state trial court purportedly used a void conviction to enhance his sentence. Petitioner makes no specific objection to the magistrate judge's finding that his petition should be dismissed as time-barred.

Therefore,

The court accepts the findings, conclusions and recommendation of the magistrate judge and ORDERS that the petition in this action be, and is hereby, dismissed with prejudice.

SIGNED January 24, 2007.

JOHN MCBRYDE
United States District Judge
